I Believe

Fiona Sullivan —What I believe...

"I believe that Jesus Christ is the son of the everlasting God, our Lord and Creator. I believe in the Holy Trinity; that is, in the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. I acknowledge that they are all the same entity, as well, though I can never hope to understand how it works. I believe that I am sinful at heart, and could never hope to be worthy of salvation. I am only saved by Jesus's sacrifice on the cross and my faith in Him. I am duty-bound, therefore, to follow His commands to the best of my ability, regardless of earthly consequences. Having been born with a sinful nature, however, I often stumble off God's path and into sin. I believe that Jesus was crucified, died, and rose again. I believe that I am a child of God, and that he will never forsake me. I believe that God is eternal – He was never created, and will never end; He has always been. There was and will be no time without Him. I believe that He is an all-knowing and ever present God. Nothing happens that he does not allow, even bad things. Sometimes, we need to experience terrible things to push us back to Him. He is always in control. If we trust in him to care for us, He will."

A special thank you to Kelly Koetje for being Fiona's mentor.
