PSALM 30:4, NRSV

Do not merely LISTEN to the word... DO WHAT IT SAYS. James 1:22

“As important as the proper reception of the Word of God is, without obedience to its truths it is not only without benefit, but also becomes a further judgement against its readers. Obedience to the Word is the most basic spiritual requirement and is the common denominator for all true believers. The bottom line of true spiritual life is not a momentary feeling of compliance or commitment, but long-term obedience to Scripture. Genuine believers receive Christ and continue in Him. They hear His Word and do it. They know His commandments, and they keep them. They do not claim to know God yet deny Him with their deeds. The validation of salvation is a life of obedience. It is the only possible proof that a person really knows Jesus Christ. If one does not obey Christ as a pattern of life, then professing to know Him is an empty verbal exercise.”
